

Kenneth Bagshaw: LL.B. University of British Columbia (UBC). Past community involvement includes: board member of Port Hope Capitol Theatre Heritage Foundation; member of Cobourg Downtown Vitalization Advisory Committee; board member of The Centre for Ethics in Sport (Ottawa); member of Vancouver Police Board and Vancouver Police Foundation; chair of The Hamber Foundation (Vancouver); chair of Board of Governors of University of British Columbia; trustee of UBC Foundation; director of UBC Real Estate Corporation; board member of Heritage Trust of BC; President of Vancouver Art Gallery. Current community service as Past Chair of Bladder Cancer Canada; Member, Heritage Advisory Committee of Cobourg; and Past President of the World Bladder Cancer Patient Coalition. Currently a member of the AGN board of directors and chair of the finance & audit committee. Cobourg resident since 2011.

Sheila Drew is a Realtor in Northumberland County with Re/Max Lakeshore Realty. She has a background in business management and has successfully managed her career in real estate since 2010. Her experience also includes management of a small theatre production company and many years doing office administration. She is a married mother of 4 children and 5 grandchildren and has lived in Cobourg since 1987. She enjoys working with people of all backgrounds and age groups, and is always happy to take on new challenges. She has a great appreciation for visual arts.

Frank Godfrey: Guelph University graduate. Contractor Health and Safety and Human Performance specialist at OPG nuclear facilities; President of Willow Beach Field Naturalists. Active collector of original art. Treasurer of the AGN for over four years. Experience on several Committees and Boards.

Sarah Jacob: Lawyer with SMM Law Professional Corporation in Cobourg; B.A. English and Religious Studies, University of Toronto 1979; LL.B. Osgoode Hall, York University 1985; member of Rotary Club of Cobourg. Corporate Secretary on the Board of Directors at AGN.

Michael Maynard, PhD, is an award-winning graphic designer with extensive post-secondary experience as an educator and senior administrator. He has served as President of the Society of Graphic Designers of Canada, he is an elected GDC Fellow and Registered Graphic Designer Emeritus. He is a published author, his personal artwork has been featured in solo exhibitions, and he lectures regularly on design and the creative economy. Since his retirement from Seneca in 2019, where he was Dean of the Faculty of Communication, Art and Design, he has remained active as an academic consultant and President and Board Chair of the Art Gallery of Northumberland. Michael earned his BFA at Tufts University, his MFA at York University, and his PhD at the University of New Brunswick.

Dimitri Papatheodorou is an artist whose practice comprises painting, sculpture, music, installation and architecture. A licensed architect and long-Term Adjunct Faculty member in the Department of Architectural Science at Ryerson University, Papatheodorou has his home and studio in Northumberland County. Early In 2019 Papatheodorou's exhibition WALL GAZING at the Art Gallery of Northumberland combined three practices of painting, sculpture and architecture; the follow up iterations of this project involved dance, sound and video. Papatheodorou is co-founder and past Chair of the Arts & Heritage Centre in Warkworth and past Board member of the artist-run Propeller Art Gallery in Toronto. He is a passionate advocate for the arts and culture wherever he finds himself.

Cynthia Reyes is an award-winning author and blogger who has written several books. Her connections to Northumberland County are decades old. A supporter of the arts, she's a committee member of the Northumberland Festival of the Arts. A former journalist, writer, executive producer and head of journalism training with CBC Television, she has worked in every province of Canada, and many other countries, often leading groundbreaking projects. Her induction into Jamaica's Order of Distinction - Commander Level – recognized her contributions to journalism and television around the world. Cynthia is proudest of being mother to two exceptional young women.

Astrid Richardsen is professor emerita in organizational psychology and has extensive experience as an educator, Associate Dean for an MSc program in Leadership, and as department head at Norwegian Business School. She is a published author in areas of stress and health in the workplace and co-editor of books on creating psychologically healthy workplaces. Since retirement in 2018, she is actively involved in arts and crafts and has been Volunteer Coordinator at the AGN. Currently she is Vice President of the Board of Directors at AGN. Astrid obtained her PhD at McGill University. She has lived in Cobourg since 2015.

Ken Solilo: Graduated Ryerson Photographic Arts with a major in Cinematography, 5 years film editor/cinematographer CFTO-TV Toronto, 35 years CBC-TV cinematographer/ videographer, 8 of those years in Calgary, 7 in Regina and finished with 20 years in Toronto. Retired in 2011 and started Ken Solilo Photography based in Port Hope. Ongoing exhibits of my photography at Hear Right Canada in Cobourg and the Dragon Clay Gallery in Port Hope. Current exhibit at the Native Renaissance Gallery in Deseronto. Participant in the Northumberland Hills Studio Tour. Member of the Artist Collective at the Colborne Art Gallery. Previous member of the Art Gallery of Northumberland Board of Directors and co-founder of the AGN Spotlight Series.